

read what to

Here are a few new books to help get your Lent off to a powerful start. Aquilina and Cardinal Wuerl explore the Mass in depth, Ghezzi talks about prayer, and Fr. Groeschel honors those who helped him grow in holiness. Let me know what you're reading: editor@legatus.org

The Mass
by Mike Aquilina
& Cardinal Wuerl
Doubleday, 2011.
224 pages,
$21.99 hardcover

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the most common prayer in the Catholic Church – and it's the least understood by most of the faithful. Aquilina and Wuerl help reveal this great mystery in The Mass: The Glory, the Mystery, the Tradition. Anticipating changes to the English-language liturgy later this year, they have produced a concise primer on the Mass. This book is ideal for Catholic adults who need a refresher and for potential converts to Catholicism.

Adventures in Daily Prayer
by Bert Ghezzi
Brazos Press, 2010.
160 pages,
$17.99 hardcover

Legatus Magazine's newest correspondent, Ghezzi shares his adventures in prayer and offers a winsome invitation to experience the promise and power of this practice. He shows how faithfulness to daily prayer rewards us with unlimited blessings. He covers how to pray, praying for and with others, and persevering in prayer. For those who have struggled with cultivating a strong prayer life, Ghezzi provides practical help for overcoming obstacles. Helpful questions for reflection and group discussion conclude each chapter.

Travelers Along the Way
by Fr. Benedict Groeschel
Servant Books, 2010. 159 pages,
$13.99 paperback

In his first-ever memoir, Fr. Groeschel introduces you to those who influenced him. Some are unknown, such as a Jewish tailor who advised him to "be a good boy." Some are famous, such as Mother Teresa, Cardinal O'Connor, and Fr. Solanus Casey who once, in Fr. Benedict's presence, stepped into a swarm of angry bees and played his harmonica to calm them. These stories will not only inspire you, but also help you appreciate those who have enriched your own life. LM

hear what to

Those who naïvely think the militant homosexual lobby simply wants "equality" by having the freedom to "marry" need to listen to what Charles LiMandri has to say in this new CD set. A member of Legatus' board of governors and its San Diego Chapter, LiMandri has been on the front lines of the fight to defend traditional marriage for more than a decade.

Good-bye Religious Liberty? How the Attacks on Marriage Are Threatening Your Religious Freedom details the threats posed by homosexual activists on cultural, academic and legal fronts.

"The opposition is relentless and as intolerant as one can imagine," LiMandri says. "They view those people who have an opposing viewpoint as bigots who need to be silenced, and if they won't be silenced, they need to be punished. They're willing to use all legal means to effectuate that."

Good-bye Religious Liberty?
by Charles S. LiMandri
Catholic Answers
(catholic.com), 2010.
3 CDs, $27.95

Combining honed legal skills with a knowledgeable and timely grasp of the issue as it's currently playing out, LiMandri's three 45-minute talks offer a clear path to the truth. He discusses how the homosexual agenda is manipulating local, state, and constitutional law; the part that schools – public and private – are playing in pushing this same agenda; and why the Church cannot – and will not – be silent on this issue.

LiMandri shows that even secular marriage experts are looking at same-sex unions as nothing short of social cataclysm, and he discusses the history and progress of the homosexual agenda – and why legalizing same-sex "marriage" is a ploy to attack the Church.

More importantly, LiMandri equips his listeners with a strategy to make sure this agenda fails – not for now, not for a little bit, but permanently. LM